Introduction: International Women's Day is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity. Significant activity is witnessed worldwide as groups come together to celebrate women's achievements. Marked annually on March 8th, International Women's Day (IWD) is one of the most important days of the year to:

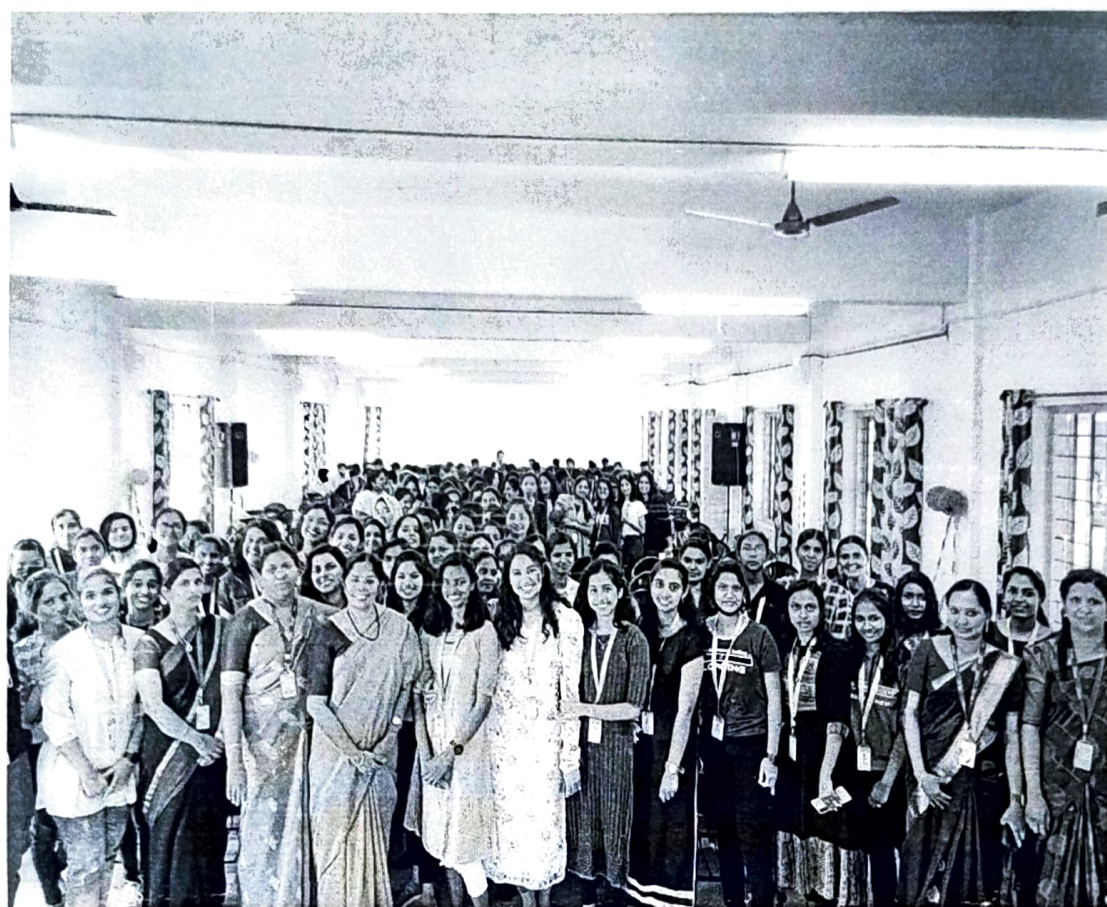

A poster making competition on Women's day was been conducted in morning and many of the students had participated for that. It was interesting to know that boys have also participated for it.

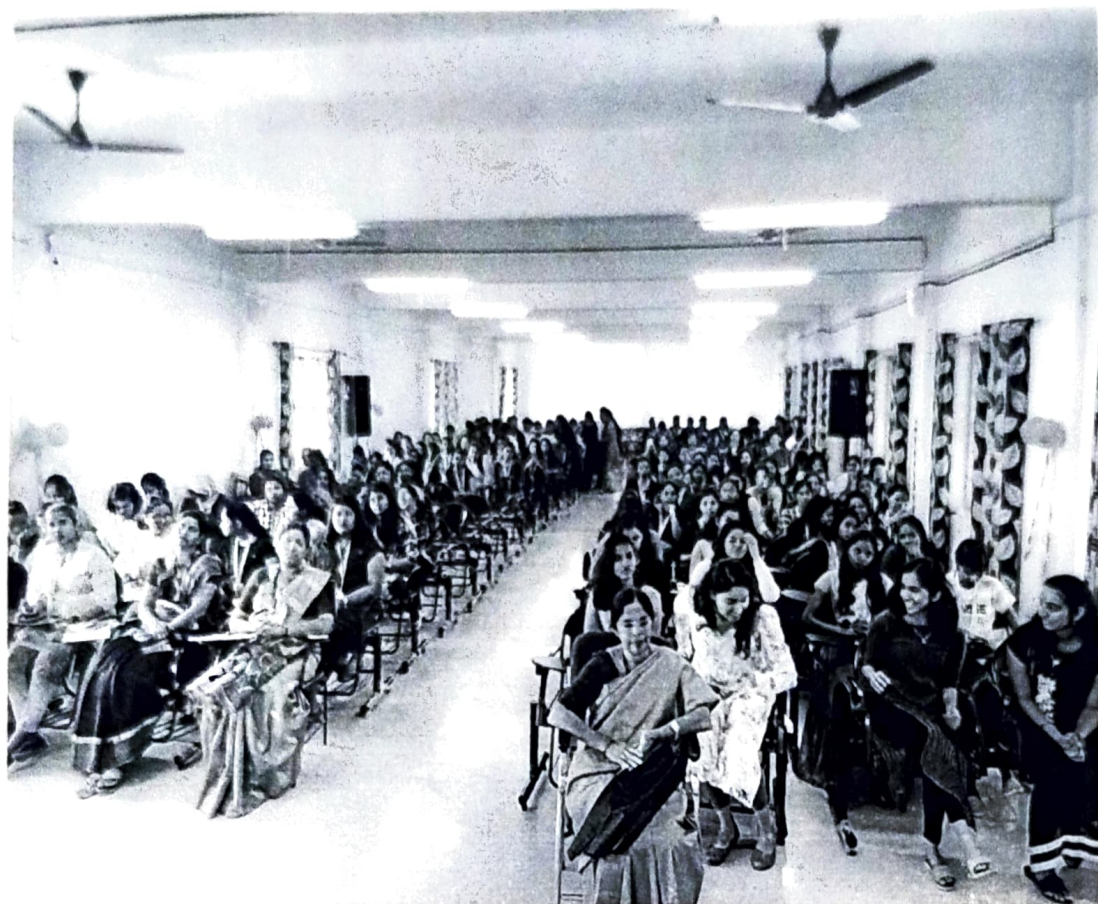

Chief guest was Maya Susan Jacob (Counseling Psychologist) and the program was inaugurated by Lekshmi Helen (Panchayath Vice President, Peermade). During the event Aleyamma Varghese (Women's cell chairperson) deliver the welcome speech and Annie Chacko (Chairperson External Affairs) addressed gathering and she said that there should be a balance between career and family and without a family support a women can't achieve success. On the same occasion the guest of honor, Maya Susan Jacob shared her tales of struggle and success. Further she said, gender equality is very important for a healthy society. The milestone to be reached is the basic information for a girl child in every family education will during awareness among the society which will further result in overall development of nation and its community. First Year students did a dance on women empowerment like protection of women, the need of women's education. Many other cultural programs were performed by students of various years on that day. Finally, Asst. Prof. Aryalakshmi R (Staff Coordinator) thanked them and ended the program whole heartily.

[Refreshment: We have given refreshments to all staff and participants]
