- Theme: Togetherness, Culture, and Celebration

1. Introduction

As a part of the vibrant CYNEX '25 celebrations, the AI Day Dinner Night held on March 12, 2025, from 7:00 PM to 10:00 PM, brought the entire college community together in a festive and heartwarming evening. Designed as a closing celebration, the dinner created the perfect space for bonding, laughter, and shared joy after an intellectually enriching day.

The dinner event was completely free of cost for everyone who wished to participate. Attendees were asked to submit their details for registration. Special invitations were extended to dignitaries, faculty, and non-teaching staff, appreciating their continued support and contribution.

2. Venue & Seating Arrangements

The primary venue for the event was the Open Auditorium, but due to the enthusiastic participation and crowd size, the seating arrangements were extended in front of the Civil Block as well.

The entire seating setup was arranged by the students of the AI Department, who worked together by transporting benches from classrooms to the venue. Their coordination ensured comfortable seating for all guests . After the event, the team showed equal responsibility by rearranging and returning all benches to their original places, maintaining order and cleanliness throughout the campus.

3. Live Music by College Band – “Blackouts”

The musical soul of the evening was the live performance by the college band “Blackouts.” Their performance set the perfect mood, mixing melody and energy with popular and regional tunes that had the crowd singing and swaying .

Highlights :

Soft acoustic sets

Popular language medleys

Crowd interaction and musical dedications

Their talent gave the evening a beautiful musical backdrop and added to the relaxed vibe of the event.

4. Food & Live Cooking Experience

The food was prepared live and served fresh, with special attention given to cleanliness and hygiene. The live cooking counters created excitement among the attendees and allowed everyone to enjoy warm, freshly prepared food.

Non-Vegetarian Menu

Al Faham Chicken (live prepared)

kuboos

Mayonnaise (live prepared)

Vegetarian Menu

Vegetable Stew

For Everyone Sulaimani - served after the meal (live prepared)

Food distribution was well-organized, and students helped in managing queues and ensuring smooth service.

5. Special Features of the Night

- Campfire Corner: A warm campfire was set at venue, where students and staff gathered to share stories and laughter.
- Student-led Seating Setup: AI department students arranged and restored benches responsibly, showcasing their teamwork and discipline.
- Inclusive Spirit: Entry was open to all registered participants, with special care taken to invite dignitaries and staff formally.

6. Clean-Up & Closure

The entire venue was cleaned and restored to its original condition after the event.

AI department volunteers worked efficiently to:

Rearrange all benches and furniture

Clear food waste responsibly

Ensure the space looked just as it was before the celebration

Their commitment ensured a smooth and eco-conscious wrap-up to the evening

7. Conclusion

The CYNEX '25 Dinner Night was a perfect blend of food, music, culture, and community. What made it truly special was the collective effort of students, the warmth of our guests, and the shared joy under the stars.

This night will be remembered not only for its celebrations but also for the unity, teamwork, and positive energy it represented.

It was a powerful reminder that while technology drives the future, human connection is what keeps it alive.
